

WORKFORCE EDUCATION GRANTS

Students enrolled in a professional/technical program may be eligible for the following:

CASCADIA
COLLEGE

BOTHELL

Opportunity Grant

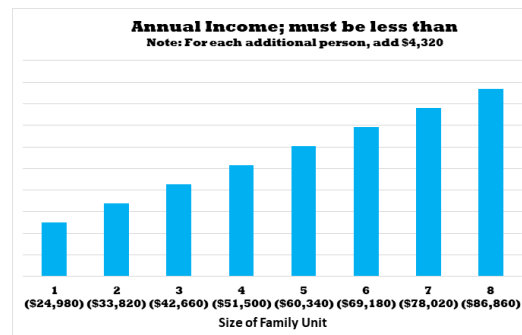

Opportunity Grant is a state-funded program designed to support lower-income adults enrolled in a professional/technical program get the required education to enter the workforce with a high demand career.

Types of Assistance

- Tuition Assistance & Fees (45 credits within a three-year period of time)
- Books/Supplies & Transportation
- Emergency Funding

Eligibility Criteria

- You've lived in Washington State for the past 12+ months
- Your household income falls within this chart

Basic Food Employment & Training (BFET) Grant

A federally-funded program designed to support students who are receiving food stamps and are currently enrolled in a professional/technical program or basic education for adults classes.

Types of Assistance

- Tuition Assistance & Fees
- Books/Supplies & Transportation
- Childcare
- Emergency Funding

Eligibility Criteria

- You've lived in Washington State for the past 12+ months
- You are currently receiving, or eligible for, Basic Food Assistance (Food Stamps) not TANF or WIC

Worker Retraining Grant

Worker Retraining is a program designed to provide job-related training and employment services to unemployed and dislocated workers enrolled in a professional/technical program to train for advancement in their current field or get started on a new career path.

Types of Assistance

- 1-2 Quarters of Tuition Assistance & Fees
- Books/Supplies & Transportation
- Relief from Job Search Requirements
- Possible Extension of Unemployment Benefits

Eligibility Criteria (any one of the following)

- Eligible for unemployment or received unemployment in the last four years
- Displaced homemaker
- Formerly self-employed
- Vulnerable worker
- Discharged from the military within the past 48 months

Pop on over to LBA-102E (across from the library) to see if you qualify or contact
425.352.8256 | workforceinfo@cascadia.edu